

HOLMWOOD WINTER NEWSLETTER 2022

A TALE OF WINTER

From winter skies snowflakes fall
Turning everything so bright,
The fields the hills and all around
All carpeted in white.

Everything shrouded in winter whiteness
For as far as the eye can see.
Apart from robin redbreast
In the branches of an old yew tree.

By the hedgerow are the footprints left by animals
Leaving signs of where they have been,
Icicles hang like crystals from an iron gate
Typifies the winter scene.

I walk across a frozen field
That is draped in a pure white sheet,
And ol jack frost creeps into my boots
Then nibbles away at my feet.

THIS YEAR

This year we spread our wings and went back out into the community. Covid appeared to be on the way out and we were all desperate to get back to some sort of normality. We enjoyed trips to the Southwold beach hut, the Fisher Theatre, Highway Nurseries and the Waveney stardust boat to name a few. Residents were able to get out and about in the town and enjoy proper visits from friends and loved ones. We started to welcome entertainers back including Elvis, Mavins armchair exercises, a Brass band and the Bell Ringers. Unfortunately, we had to take a step backwards when we had Covid in the home but we came through it and are now looking forward to a Happy New Year.

We are starting to book trips and entertainment for 2023 and are hoping for a fun filled year.

If you have any ideas for things you would like to do or places you would like to visit please just let Amanda or Kathy know, or any other member of staff who will pass the message on.

KING CHARLES

As you will all be aware we lost our wonderful Queen this year and now have a King – King Charles and his wife Camilla.

The Coronation of Charles III and Camilla will be on Saturday 6th May 2023.

Holmwood will celebrate the Coronation along with the rest of the country with some special events.

We will keep you informed of all the events as we plan them.
